Dear Aaron G Etra,

Please respond immediately for the best opportunity to suspend any additional fees and penalties. You have been sent numerous correspondences and you have not responded as of this notice.

A LIEN HAS BEEN FILED AGAINST YOU DUE TO YOUR FAILURE TO PAY YOUR TAXES TO THE STATE TAXING AUTHORITY

BALANCE DUE:	$139,343.0
LIEN FILED ON:	3/2/2023
NOTICE DATE:	3/2/2023

This lien will remain on record and against you and all your current and future assets until the balance due, current and future interest, fees, penalties and any and all associated charges that are allowable by law are paid in full. This lien may affect your credit rating, ability to buy or rent a home, car, truck or other assets.

In addition, until your balance is zero ($0.00), the Federal Taxing Authority may pursue other collection actions including taking money from your paycheck or Social Security Benefits, your entire tax refund, and money in your bank or savings account(s). They may even elect to revoke your business or automobile license and/or pursue criminal prosecution.
